

Kendalan's questions #39

Way back is quiet. I hope we haven't killed all predators. That would be bad for balance. We got an offering. By who? Isn't very important. Back to the stone who is helping us. What does it see? Reed casts the spells to restore the woods. Will the humans be careful next time?

At night we are wakened. A fire in a barn. It has been dry for some time, perhaps that is the reason? The farmers haven't got out, so I run for their house. Arrows strike, I look, but it is too far, too dark. Cuura and I are hit, where is cover? Some bushes, not very good, then mist as Grimwald helps. I move to the edge, looking. Nothing? Wait, light. Far away. Man on horse. I shoot once. Then closer by, a glitter. The Ninja, yes? With Zhae? Aim, shoot, and he swipes it out of the air. How does he do that? Cuura shoots too. Perhaps multiple arrows work? Too dark. A blast of fire, acid, other dark shapes, then long distance arrows again. Cuura calls the horse and it obeys. We capture a half orc. Grimwald is talking to the priests of Helm, I go find the farmers. Tracks. A hole in the ground and a dead beast. Diseased? We need to rest and prepare. And what is that bad smell from a little fire. Reed and Felina burned something?
